Teaching methods

Integration seminar, work placement, clinical lectures, seminar: coached exercises

Extra information on the teaching methods

The student-teachers (teachers in training) in a LIO-trajectory have to realize the above-mentioned goals and competences through an alternative portfoliotrajectory. The assignments are elaborated in a manual. There are a number of contact-moments, a number of mandatory lessons or seminars and coaching moments. LIO-students and students with a traineeship reduction at a LIO-level must attend 2 interdisciplinary intervision sessions. Intersivision session 1 is part of Practice-Based Exercises A. Intersivision session 2 is part of Practice-Based Exercises B.

A full LIO-job implies an assignment at least 500 hours which is equivalent to two thirds of a full-time contract or 12u per week. In addition there are the following conditions:

- The assignment must be related to a level where the teacher has a licence to teach: it is the second and third grade in secondary education (and the first level for teachers of Latin and Greek) or in a centre for adult education.
- Ghent University also allows students-teachers who have a job in a professional bachelor to the LIO-trajectory.
- The LIO has an assignment with a sufficient number of variation in the lessons
- The LIO's assignment includes sufficient "classroom hours"
- At least half of the lessons refer to the teachers specific didactics

LIO's with an assignment of at least 500 hours which do not comply with one or more of these additional conditions, have an extra preservice internship of 10 hours. A candidate with a LIO-trajectory of less than 200 hours (this corresponds to a teaching assignments of less than 5u per week) is not admitted to the portfolio-trajectory. The student then has to follow the normal learning-trajectory. For the teaching practice the student gets a reduction of the number of lessons to teach.

Course content-related study coaching

Guidance is provided by the cooperating teacher, the subject cooperating teacher (coach) and the teacher educator. The guidance and evaluation by the cooperating teacher are determined by an agreement. The teacher educator is member of the institute (practical assistant) and is responsible for the contacts with schools, the individual supervision and the guidance and coordination during the internship and practice-based exercises. This is done under the supervision of the department Professor in Teacher Education.

Extra information on the examination methods

The student-teachers (teachers in training) in a LIO-trajectory are evaluated on a permanent basis based their assignments in their portfolio. Students who just have to finish their internship and wish to finish their studies in early February, have to contact the professor as early as possible in the academie year.

Students with a LIO-trajectory have to contact the internship-coordinator.

Descripton second exam opportunity: possible through a reworking of certain components of the teaching practice. The form and size is determined by the teacher responsible. One must keep in mind that there can be no new teaching practice lessons in August and September.

Calculation of the examination mark

The evaluation of the practice-based exercises is based on the different components of the internship, including language and attitudes. This shows a total score on 100 points. Absence from a compulsory cross-curricular seminar (lecture or practical exercise FIRST AID or lecture voice hygiene) is sanctioned by a reduction of the total score with 5 points.

LIO-students and students with a traineeship reduction at a LIO-level who are absent for interdisciplinary intervision session 1 will be sanctioned with a reduction of 5 points of the total score of Practice-Based Exercises A.

The responsible teacher gets a certificate from the attended lectures and practical exercises and will deduct this in the total score.

To succeed, for the practice-based exercises a student has to receive a credit for each of the following components: FG 1: the teacher as a guide of learning and development processes; FG 2: the teacher as an educator; FG 3: the teacher as a content expert; FG 4: the teacher as an organizer; FG 5: the teacher as an innovator and as a researcher; FG 7: the teacher as a member of a school team; FG 10: the teacher as a cultural participant. The student also has to succeed for the components language and attitudes. As regard to the FG 6, 8 and 9, there must be evidence from the reports in the students journal that he has made efforts to acquire the basic competences.

Students must be enrolled in the teacher training program by October 15 at the latest. Seeing presence in the exercises is mandatory, a student must be present in the first lesson. This is also the case for the Students in a LIO trajectory.

Students who eschew periodic and/or permanent evaluations for the course unit concerned are given a non-deliberative final quotation.
