Position of the course
The study unit "Italian Language Practice D" (I2PD) aims to apply the acquired knowledge to different skills and includes not only supervised speaking and conversation exercises, but also free, creative speaking exercises. The aim is to develop speaking and conversation skills on day-to-day subjects relating to topical matters, with specific attention to communicative interaction. This study unit also seeks to expand vocabulary, for example through reading assignments (two books and several texts). Writing skills are also further developed, with particular attention to academic writing in Italian.

Contents
The study unit "Italian Language Practice D" (I2PD) offers a set of varied oral activities, including conversations on themes extracted from recent press articles. Three short films constitute the basis, or part, of the communication exercises. Students are supervised from close-up to improve their speaking and conversation skills. The course also integrates the following elements: extension of thematic vocabulary (Intertaal) and communicative functions and expressions. Furthermore the basic principles of academic writing are learnt and applied. Students also required to read independently an Italian book and at least two short stories.

Initial competences
The final objectives of the various Italian study units of the first bachelor year and of semester 1 of the second bachelor year.

Final competences
1. Having a command of Italian at B2 level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages for reading, oral skills (production and interaction), writing skills and vocabulary [B.1.2; assessed]
2. Having knowledge and understanding of the use of connectors to achieve relational coherence when writing a text and of the use of different techniques to increase information density in a text [B.1.6; assessed]
3. Having knowledge and understanding of the cultural and institutional context of the language areas concerned and for the intercultural relations and differences, and applying these in the interpretation, translation and production of written and oral text. [B.1.6; assessed]
4. Using a broad knowledge of different social domains in oral production [B.1.8; assessed]
5. Expressing oneself in academic writing in Italian [B.6.3/B.2.3; assessed]
6. Having knowledge of relevant dictionaries, reference works and electronic aids, using them adequately and efficiently, and critically evaluating them; displaying intellectual curiosity and a lifelong learning attitude [B.6.5/B.3.4; not assessed]
