The objectives of the course “Turkish: Language Practice D” (U2PD) are:

1. The students expand their vocabulary to about 4000 words;
2. The students learn to analyse and translate texts of average difficulty in both directions;
3. The students develop their active language skills, both orally and in writing;
4. The students learn to judiciously use bilingual dictionaries;
5. The students are aware of the specific use contexts of the lexicon, according to text type and register and they are aware of typical realia in the textual material.

In the course “Turkish: Language Practice D” (U2PD) the students increase their reading skills through analyzing and translating a number of Turkish literary texts. The themes include the oppositions between emigrants / non-emigrants, West / East, lower class / upper class. The texts illustrate different registers. The attention of the students is drawn to the typical Turkish realia mentioned in the text material. Besides the Turkish-Dutch translation of the text material, the students also do short Dutch-Turkish translations. They learn to critically use the existing dictionaries. A number of texts are read and analyzed independently by the students. The vocabulary of the students increases by about 1,000 new words. Specific themes are addressed in a systematic manner. Through a.o. discussion, role play and oral summary, listening and speaking skills are built up. To develop their writing skills, students are required to write essays.

The final objectives of the various Turkish study units of the first bachelor year.

1. Having a command of Turkish at B1+ level of the Common European Framework of Reference for Languages for comprehension (listening and reading), oral skills (production and interaction) and writing skills. [B.1.2.; assessed]
2. Having a strong language awareness and developing a sensitivity to the similarities, differences and interactions between cultures. [B.3.1.; assessed]
3. Based on acquired competences, acting correctly and tactfully in different communicative situations, based on an understanding of similarities, differences and interactions between cultures. [B.5.2.; assessed]
4. Adequately interpreting, analysing, assessing and correcting written and oral communication. [B.6.1.; assessed]
5. Independently compiling text of an average level of difficulty in Turkish, and assessing it critically, thereby justifying the text type appropriate to the purpose, target group and media. [B.6.2.; assessed]
6. Expressing themselves in communicative situations of an average level of difficulty in Turkish appropriate to the purpose, target group and media (spoken and written work). [B.6.3.; assessed]
7. Independently translating texts of average difficulty from Turkish into Dutch and carrying out translations of complex sentences from Dutch into Turkish. [B.6.4.; assessed]
