1 General Courses

Subscribe to course units from the following list.

This list - only meant for incoming exchange students - consists of general courses (applicable to all programmes within our faculty) from which you can choose and which you can add as a supplement to your programme-specific courses, internship and/or research.

Please bear in mind that each study programme within the faculty has its own regulations and decides whether and which course(s) can be added to your curriculum. All selected courses in your learning agreement are therefore subject to approval by the study programme.
