Position of the course
The course unit "German Grammar A" (D1SA) familiarises students with the basic morphology of German grammar.

Contents
The course unit "German Grammar A" (D1SA) consists of both theory and exercises and focuses on the basic morphology of German, including the main parts of speech. The emphasis is on the verb. Much attention is paid to the differences between German and Dutch.

Initial competences
Average general knowledge that can be expected from someone who has completed secondary education; no specific starting competences required.

Final competences
1 Having a command of the basic grammar of German regarding the morphology of the verb and the basic morphology of the noun, the adjective and the pronoun [B. 1.2.; assessed].
2 Having a command of the basic terminology of German grammar regarding the morphology of the verb, and recognising and independently interpreting grammatical structures of German with specific attention to the solution-oriented analysis of grammatical problems inherent to basic German grammar and with close attention to contrastive aspects compared to Dutch [B.1.3.; assessed].
3 Having knowledge and understanding of the translation difficulties that may arise when translating texts from Dutch into German, with specific attention to grammatical phenomena [B.1.6.; assessed].
4 Having a strong language awareness [B.3.1.; not assessed].
5 Based on linguistic knowledge, thinking and reasoning analytically and based on this, solving unfamiliar, complex problems. [B.3.2.; not assessed].

Conditions for credit contract
Access to this course unit via a credit contract is unrestricted: the student takes into consideration the conditions mentioned in 'Starting Competences'

Conditions for exam contract
Access to this course unit via an exam contract is unrestricted

Teaching methods
Guided self-study, lecture, seminar

Extra information on the teaching methods
During the seminars, prepared exercises are corrected and explained. In the translation exercises, considerable time is spent on translation problems between Dutch and German.
