

Field trip – rural water management (I002485)

Due to Covid 19, the education and evaluation methods may vary from the information displayed in the schedules and course details. Any changes will be communicated on Ufora.

Course size (nominal values; actual values may depend on programme)
Credits 1.0 Study time 30 h Contact hrs 10.0 h

Course offerings in academic year 2020-2021

A (semester 2) English Gent

Lecturers in academic year 2020-2021

Cepuder, Peter
Stumpp, Christine

WIEN03 lecturer-in-charge
WIEN03 co-lecturer

Offered in the following programmes in 2020-2021

	crdts	offering
International Master of Science in Soils and Global Change (main subject Soil Biogeochemistry and Global Change)	1	A

Teaching languages

English

Keywords

Position of the course

Contents

The excursion should sharpen the practical aspects of the rural water management theme.

Initial competences

Final competences

One day excursions or excursions of several days' duration will be arranged in the northern and north-eastern parts of Austria. Systems of irrigation, drainage, soil protection and agrometeorologic stations will be visited.

Conditions for credit contract

This course unit cannot be taken via a credit contract

Conditions for exam contract

This course unit cannot be taken via an exam contract

Teaching methods

Group work, fieldwork

Extra information on the teaching methods

The students will receive a certificate on participation (no grade) with proven attendance at the excursion. They will receive a graded certification if they prepare a field trip report (individual or groups of up to 4 students maximum).

Learning materials and price

References

Course content-related study coaching

Evaluation methods

continuous assessment

Examination methods in case of periodic evaluation during the first examination period

Examination methods in case of periodic evaluation during the second examination period

Examination methods in case of permanent evaluation

Participation, report

Possibilities of retake in case of permanent evaluation examination during the second examination period is possible

Extra information on the examination methods

The students will receive a certificate on participation (no grade) with proven attendance at the excursion. They will receive a graded certification if they prepare a field trip report (individual or groups of up to 4 students maximum).

Calculation of the examination mark